

STUDYSPRINT

THE STUDENT SYSTEM

Plan smarter. Revise with purpose. Use AI as a study assistant — not a shortcut.

StudySprint is a simple weekly system. Pick your priorities, schedule focused sessions, practise what you do not know, and review your progress.

The 4-step loop

1. Plan → 2. Learn → 3. Practise → 4. Review

Do not try to study everything at once. Start with the topics that matter most and the topics you understand least.

1. 30-DAY STUDY GOAL

Main exam / goal: _____

Date: _____ Target grade: _____

Why this goal matters: _____

My three priority subjects/topics:

① _____

② _____

③ _____

2. WEEKLY PLANNER

Day	Main subject	Topic	Minutes	Done
Mon			_____	■
Tue			_____	■
Wed			_____	■
Thu			_____	■
Fri			_____	■
Sat			_____	■
Sun			_____	■

Weekly rule: every session should have a specific task. “Study chemistry” is vague. “Do 12 equilibrium questions” is specific.

3. DAILY FOCUS CARD

Today's top task	_____
Subject / topic	_____
Start time	_____
End time	_____
What I need to understand	_____
How I will test myself	_____

4. EXAM COUNTDOWN

Exam: _____ Date: _____

Days remaining: _____

Priority A — must master:

- _____
- _____

Priority B — should improve:

- _____
- _____

Priority C — quick review:

- _____

5. AI STUDY PROMPTS

Explain simply

“Explain [TOPIC] in simple language. Give me one example, then ask me 5 questions to check whether I understand.”

Active recall

“Quiz me on [TOPIC] one question at a time. Do not reveal the answer until I answer. Increase the difficulty when I get questions right.”

Find my mistakes

“Here are my answers: [PASTE]. Mark them, explain my mistakes clearly, and give me one similar question for each mistake.”

Flashcards

“Turn these notes into concise question-and-answer flashcards. Focus on definitions, processes, formulas and common exam traps: [PASTE NOTES].”

Mock exam

“Create a [NUMBER]-question exam on [TOPIC]. Match this difficulty: [EASY/MEDIUM/HARD]. Hide the answers until I submit mine.”

6. PROGRESS TRACKER

Week	Topic	Confidence 1–10	Test score	Next action
1			%
2			%
3			%
4			%

7. WEEKLY REVIEW

What improved?
What still feels weak?
What mistake did I repeat?
What will I change next week?
Confidence 1–10
